The first Yankee Pier opened in Larkspur in 2000, offering the freshest seafood from coast to coast. It is located in a quaint house built in 1924, with a front porch draped in flowering wisteria during the summer. A second Yankee Pier, at Santana Row in San Jose, opened two years later, followed by Yankee Pier at San Francisco Airport, and recently, a fourth in Lafayette. Each restaurant is committed to serving the best quality fish and shellfish, along with local produce, housemade desserts, and a selection of all-American wines.
